Fire Breaks Out in Moving Freight Train.

Nanaimo, May 30.—(Special)—Fire caused by sparks from a locomotive broke out amongst a train of cars on the Extension branch line. The speed of the train soon fanned the fire into a blaze. The engineer uncoupled and started full steam for Extension for help, and in the meanwhile the burning cars stopped on a grade and then began to run back to Fiddick's Junction, where they smashed into some cars standing on the track, three of them being damaged. Nobody was hurt.

Following are the pall-bearers for the late W. G. Young: Ex-Mayor Bate, W. K. Leigh, F. McB. Young, W. H. Lewis, Thomas Dickey, and Harry Haslam. Employees of the works will attend in a body, besides both Nanaimo lodges of Freemasons and a large number of friends from Victoria and Vancouver. The obsequies are under the auspices of the Masons.

Wu Ting

On Grant

Chinese Minister Places Flowers on United States General's Tomb.

And Makes a Flowery Speech in Honor of His Memory.

Li Hung Chang Gave Orders For Ceremony to Be Carried Out.

New York, May 30.—Although there were threatening signs of rain throughout the early part of today, memorial day exercises in this city were carried out with more than the usual interest.

The important events of the day's programme were the military parade, which was reviewed at Madison Square by Governor O'Dell and Mayor van Wyck, the exercises at Grant's tomb, where Wu Ting Fang made an address, the decoration of the Hall of Fame of the New York University, at which Senator Chauncey M. Depew delivered an oration.

At Grant's tomb Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, in accordance with instructions given by Li Hung Chang some years ago, placed an offering of flowers on the stone coffin containing the General's remains. Mr. Wu also delivered an address.

Minister Wu graphically described the career of Gen. Grant as citizen, soldier and statesman, his remarks showing a close study of his subject. "Nothing shows more clearly," he said, "the highest estimation in which Grant was held by the world at large than the spontaneous enthusiasm with which he was everywhere greeted when he made his famous tour around the world. Princes, potentates and common people alike vied with one another in paying him the homage due great rulers. Cities opened their gates to welcome him to his approach. His progress from country to country was like a triumphal procession. All this was a significant tribute to his character and his fame. It must be remembered that he was at this time only a private citizen. But everybody recognized the greatness inherent in the man. In no country, I dare say, did he receive a warmer welcome than in the old empire of China."

"The career of Grant is just such as is calculated to fire the imagination of the Chinese. Statesmen and generals do not come from an exclusive stock, is one of our favorite sayings. We Chinese have great admiration for men who have risen by their talents from humble beginnings to be acknowledged leaders of great people, such as Grant."

Minister Wu then alluded to the friendship between Gen. Grant and Li Hung Chang and said: "After Grant's death Earl Li gave instructions to the Chinese legation at Washington to bring every year, as is done this day, an offering of flowers to the General's tomb on memorial day, as a token of his enduring friendship."

CANNERY COMBINE.

Vancouver Men Make Sale of Their Establishment to Sound Men.

Vancouver, May 30.—(Special)—Mr. McGovern, who is striving to combine the salmon canneries on the Puget Sound, says that he is absolutely certain that the Puget Sound cannery deal will go through as he had options on the money going into the Sound, and the money was ready to take the options up on the first of July. On being asked if the canneries were to be sold, he said that he had no intention to commit bigamy. Furthermore, when Hocking wrote to his brother and asked them if it was true that a divorce had been obtained, they wrote back that wife number one said that it had. These letters were unfortunately destroyed. Judge Davis further states the most convincing proof of all is that a copy of the decree divorcing Mr. and Mrs. Hocking is dated previous to the date of Hocking's second marriage, and is in his possession, and that Hocking did not commit bigamy, and should not be in jail.

Speaker at Arbitration Conference Points Out Danger of U.S. Policy.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 30.—The subject for this morning's session of the arbitration conference was the influence of commerce and commercial bodies upon the peace of the world. Professor Clarke, of Columbia, combated the idea that war was promotive of prosperity. On the contrary, he said, it simply gave the present money to expand by mortgaging the future. War was a source of poverty, not wealth.

W. J. Combs, of Brooklyn, deprecated the United States tariff policy in that it aroused the antagonism of other nations as already seen in hostile foreign legislation. "We have," he said, "created imperialism in America. It is a dangerous and war-making theory that we must extend our borders in order to keep trade going and make money."

Mr. Combs directed attention to the fact that vast as the mercantile and commercial interests of the country were, only one merchant had a seat in the House of Representatives or in the Senate.

Mr. Combs' speech was received with an interview today, that makes him a received instruction from Ottawa, the Dominion fishery regulations would be certainly carried out by him without recognition of the Provincial authorities. The cannery's committee today wrote to the Fishermen's committee stating that they desired to meet them to arrange matters for the opening season.

A telegram has been received from the Provincial government giving its assent to the revision of the scale of fees charged in the government assay office in this city.

FRENCH AND GERMAN.
General Bonnal Speaks Highly of Emperor William.

Berlin, May 30.—The correspondent of the Associated Press has interviewed the French General Bonnal about Emperor William and his army, and at the interesting military sights witnessed here in the last few days. He said: "I have been astonished at the perfectly frank and soldierly manner and speech of the emperor. Repeatedly, the emperor emphasized his goodness because the German and French fought shoulder to shoulder recently, not only in China, but in West Africa, thus learning to mutually esteem each other."

The emperor also said to General Bonnal yesterday: "When you return to France, tell your countrymen that here nothing is felt but sympathy and respect for France."

General Bonnal reportedly said to His Majesty: "I am not a diplomat or a political general."

Regarding the German army, General Bonnal said: "Neither the German nor French army is the same as in 1870; there have been great improvements in both. Each might learn much from the other." For the soldiers, are inspiring spectacles, especially if they are perfectly drilled, like the Germans. But, battles are not won by parades.

Prince von Schwarzenberg, in opposing the bill, declared that the opposition of senators provided an opportunity for foreign invasion, and would seriously prejudice agriculture. Finally the Pan-Germans walked out of the house, Dr. Lenger denouncing them as "contemptible traitors to the country."

THE TROUT STREAM.

From Forest and Stream.

Among the hills of far away
The trout flows in trout stream,
And I am wondering where today
Just in a May day dream.

Down through the fields so soft and green
The brooks winds round the farm,
The budding trouton scene
Within its shining arm.

The orchard blossoms down
The rippled bright brook,
Frail argosies that dip and down
Their tails in gold and white.

The brook sing in the giant elm
Till all the brookside rings,
Or darting to the watery realm
They have their glossy wings.

On through the meadow's mist and glow
At bowering sleepy bairn,
The grassy ribbon swinging low,
Half hide its smiling face.

But here and there it leaps away,
Sings to the open sky,
And holds the clouds of white and gray
Within its laughing eye.

The dipping willow by the mill
Cares for its happy face;
So on it flows, its purpose still
To bless each thirsty place.

Beyond the gill, the eddies rush
With eager, clamorous shout,
Deep down, fringed by the brush,
Where lurk the royal trout.

See there! that dainty beauty shone
Out from his cool, dark nook;
Oil for a swaying red and blue,
A trusty feathered hook.

Away with business, out and ram—
My red and red eye are out;

Tomorrow's sun finds my dream,
I'm going to fish for trout.

DUTY OF BOARD.

The duty is cast on the board to provide sites, maintenance and salaries for teachers employed in the public schools, and to furnish the salaries and maintenance of the public schools and high schools out of the rates of the city.

The school board has appealed to the Attorney-General, who has replied that when high schools are established under the provisions of section 7 of the Public Schools Act they become a part of the public school system of the province.

Section 6.—Establishment of school districts by council of public instruction.

Section 7.—Power of council of public instruction to make and establish rules, etc., for government of the public schools, districts, etc., etc.

Section 13.—Establish a normal school with departments, etc.

Section 14.—Council of public instruction may establish a high school or college institute in any school district where it may be expedient to do so, wherein the higher branches may be taught, etc. Every such high school or college school shall be under the control of the local board of trustees for the district in which such high school is situated, etc.

Section 35.—The per capita grant is based on attendance per head of the public schools pupils. Duties of trustees shall be fixed and paid at the discretion of the trustees and such salaries and all other expenses for the purchase or letting of sites, etc., etc., incurred by the board of trustees in the respective cities shall be borne and paid by the municipal corporation in the said cities respectively.

Section 36.—The per capita grant is based on attendance per head of the public schools pupils. Duties of trustees shall be fixed and paid at the discretion of the trustees and such salaries and all other expenses for the purchase or letting of sites, etc., etc., incurred by the board of trustees in the respective cities shall be borne and paid by the city in which such schools are established.

Section 37.—Trustees to annually make estimates for city council of sums required by the board for the current year's ordinary expenses of maintaining the schools as they exist at the time of making such estimates, which sums shall be paid over as required by the trustees from time to time upon the order of the trustees by the city treasurer to the several persons or corporation for whose use such moneys are payable.

Also a like estimate of sums required by the board to meet any special or extraordinary expenditure which council may alter and in that case a by-law can be submitted to the rate of the payees.

Has this estimate been passed by the council including the high school salaries?

The board may demand fees for high schools from parents and guardians to make such high schools more or less self-sustaining, such fee when paid to be received by the city treasurer and paid over in the same manner as the monies voted by the city for public schools' salaries and maintenance. Outside this provision there is nothing to indicate how, out of what fund, or by what method, the fees of high schools shall be paid, excepting if it be held back that the high schools are included in the term public schools, and in that case the payment would be provided for as before stated, that is by the corporation.

The act provides that the board may demand tuition fees for high schools from parents and guardians to make such schools more or less self-sustaining, such fee when paid to be received by the city treasurer and paid over in the same manner as the monies voted by the city for public schools' salaries and maintenance.

Section 43.—Advanced education to equivalent of high schools is included in that of public school. Though a matter of doubt, I am of opinion that it is not, for the following reasons:

A committee meeting of the local branch of the Navy League was held last night, with the president, Sir Henry P. P. Crease, in the chair.

RESIDENCE AFIRE.

Home of A. R. Milne Damaged—Loss Covered by Insurance.

Just as the town clock was recording the hour of four yesterday afternoon the fire department received a call on No. 1, 21st Street, at the corner of Douglas and Davison streets. It was for a fire at the residence of Mr. A. R. Milne, collector of customs on Queen's avenue, which had got good headway before the fire department could reach the scene. Despite this the house was saved, although the loss occasioned by fire and water will reach about $1,500. The only theory possible as to the cause of the fire is that a son of Mr. Milne's, who was developing photographs in a dark room on the upper floor of the house, accidentally set fire to some clothing in the room with a candle, which he had been using. He had the candle lit some time when his mother noticed the smoke coming from the stairway. Mrs. Milne called to her son, and upon his going up to investigate he found the room in flames. Running to the nearest fire alarm box he sent in an alarm, and while the department responded promptly the interior of the house was in flames before they arrived, and smoke was issuing from the windows and roof. The chemical engines were unable to cope with the fire, and Chief Deasy was compelled to use three streams of water. It took an hour's hard fighting to get the better of the fire, and naturally the furniture was damaged by water.

The house was insured for $2,000, and the furniture for $1,000, and, as stated, the loss is estimated at $1,500.

INVITED ARREST.

William B. Evans, Brooke Wilson's Plate Glass Window When Considerable Damage Along.

William B. Evans, an unfortunate who has been at the hospital since last November with a brief break, occupies a cell in the city lock-up, and his method of getting there was unique. He was discharged from the hospital yesterday, although he would much rather have remained there and after his discharge he walked around the streets until about midnight, hobbling along on a stick. About midnight he was standing on Government street in front of Wilson Bros. clothing store, waiting for a constable came along. It was a few minutes before a constable, when Constable Carlow arrived and Evans when the constable was near enough to see what he was doing, took a stone and broke the big plate glass window of the store. He was at once arrested, and to the constable he said he had taken that means of being arrested, for having been discharged from the hospital, he was now without a home or habitation, and had no means to secure either food or lodging. He had therefore conceived the plan of breaking the plate glass window in order that he might be lodged in jail. He was given in charge by the officer charged with malicious damage to property, and was taken up in the police court to answer to this charge this morning. Evans is a man of from forty to fifty years of age, and walks with a stick, for he says his feet have broken out, and make walking difficult. He also complains of rheumatism, and says he suffers from heart failure in fact, he complains of a complication of diseases. He was perfectly sober however, and the breakage of the plate glass was deliberate.

Uncle, the dusty pilgrim, how far is it to Sagetown?

"About a mile and a half," replied the farmer.

"Can I ride with you?"

"Sartin, climb in!"

At the end of three-quarters of an hour the dusty pilgrim began to be uneasy.

"Uncle, he asked, how far are we from Sagetown, now?"

"About four miles and a half."

"Great grief! Why didn't you tell me we were going away from Sagetown?"

"Why didn't you tell me you wanted to go there?"

Traveller—Do you think the Lynch law you have here decreases the number of murders?

Native—Wall, I dunno; but it decreases the number of murderers—New York Weekly.

You know, while, what a horrible example is? said the fent mother.

Never, said the schoolboy, with a frown.

The Beneficent—Oh, yes it does. Before we were married my wife called me "Colonel" and now she says, "Here you!"

DISEASES OF CHILDREN.

Measles, Scarlet Fever and the many exhausting diseases of childhood, frequently leave the child with a semi-invalid and debilitated condition of health from which it is difficult to rescue them except by the regular use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This preparation is admirably suited to the requirements of children, and gives an invigorating and restorative influence on the system as to make weak, puny children healthy, plump and active.

The ery wen um, "They're off at last," and, speeding down the track, passed A. youth, who had held the lead; He rode a whelk, ready for speed. THE RACYCLE.

Did he feel sad? Not much, you bet; "Twas those behind had cause to feel; A short arose, "What does he ride?" Ten thousand voices long replied.

A RACYCLE.

"Beware! my son, be not too rash; Beware! the awful strain and crash!" This was the veteran's kindly hint. The youth replied, "They never fail, THESE RACYCLES."

"Oh, stay," the maiden said, "I'd like To read the name upon this bill," "Most certainly," the youth replied, "It's as I thought the maiden cried, A RACYCLE."

There in the twilight cold they lie, The valiant, hardy champion, of that day, No chance had the youth in a race, With bikes not built to keep the pace. WITH A RACYCLE.

Come Back

How Four Seamen Taken From Here Eluded Boarding House Man.

Took His Money and Liquor and Slipped Back to Victoria.

Sailors are scarce on the Sound, but the Port Townsend and Puget Sound boarding house men are not coming to Victoria for seamen as much as has been their wont. It is three weeks since Carl Newman, of a Port Townsend boarding house came here, and incident to his coming a tale is told which is in part explanatory of the absence of desire for a return visit. There was when he came, a disabled ship at Esquimalt, the Roland, and it was thought that possibly some of her sailors might be induced to desert and go to the Sound, and failing this some of the five men who had signed on the ship Iyanhoe, then in port, and who are now on the high seas as part of the Iyanhoe's crew. These men consented to go to Port Townsend with Newman. They went over one night three weeks ago on the North Pacific. Soon afterwards four of the five returned on the Utopia, but how they managed to get away from Newman is the marvel. They were worth from $60 a head up in fact as much as the boarding house men could get from the sailing ship captains, to the Port Townsend man and he took them to the Utopia to sell them, but in this case four of the sellers were too shrewd. Newman had given them $12 each, and all the whiskey they could drink, and all the domestic cigars they could smoke. He watched them crawl into their bunks, and then he left them, but only one went to sleep. It was about midnight when the four slipped from their bunks, leaving the one sleeping man for fear he would make outcry and ruin their chances of escape. They hurried down to the Utopia and came on to Victoria, leaving Newman bemoaning the loss of his $30 and the money spent on the men. As they put it, they found only a little rancher and a hobo in the house, and rather than go to sea with such a maniac, they took their chances.

The last regular meeting for the current year of the Woman's Auxiliary society, Provincial Royal Jubilee hospital, took place on Tuesday at the Driard hotel. Those present were: The president, twelve members of the society, and the secretary-treasurer. The secretary reported that arrangements for the annual meeting to be held on Tuesday, June 25, were in course of preparation, and so soon as completed the public will be notified of the same through the press.

The purchasing committee had supplied Miss Aleorn with the outfit of stockings, socks for last month, with the exception of four dozen egg cups, which were donated by Mrs. W. F. Burton.

Collection, as follows:—

For Mrs. Rocke-Robertson, $1.00; Mrs. McAlley, $1; Mrs. Simon Leiser, $8; Mrs. G. H. Barnard, $6; per Mrs. Rhodes, $12; per Mrs. Rykert, $12.25; per Mrs. Hasell, $2; total, $43.25.

The treasurer also reported a donation from Doctor Ernest Hall, of $7 towards the fund for the Queen Victoria Memorial ward. The present supply of material will be all given out this week, after which it is decided to wait until after the annual meeting, when a work committee will be appointed and a complete list procured from the members of all probable needs in this direction for the coming year. As has before been stated, and because of unlock'd hindrance of one kind or another, which have prevented many of the caring committees from fulfilling their undertakings, a very great number of the annual membership fees for the current year are now owing, but have not yet been paid in. It will be the duty of the members of the auxiliary to sail off with the ship's crew, and to collect fees from the members of the auxiliary, and to see that the money is turned over to the hospital.

The purchasing committee will be reorganized, and will be responsible for the collection of the money.

The executive committee feel confident that it only needs this reminder to assist them out of the present difficulty, and they also take this opportunity to express their deep appreciation of the sustained interest and support which the work of the Woman's

Auxiliary continues to receive from the public and which finds perpetual expression in many loving and encouraging words and gifts from those citizens and friends to
